Dear Faye:

Thank you so very much for your letter of December 12. It was wonderful to hear from you after all these years and to catch up with your many activities since I last saw you. I remember our work together with much pleasure. The unfortunate delay in my getting back to you was caused by the fact that your letter came to me by way of the AAAS's former address. I am just glad it found its way here.

I am so sorry to hear about your husband's illness. I would like to help in any way I can. Dr. Crystal is the world leader in this field. Please contact him directly and say you are doing so on my recommendation as well as that of your old professor, Joshua Lederberg. Dr. Lederberg is now President of the Rockefeller University in New York. He and Dr. Crystal are good friends. In case it would be helpful, I attach full addresses and phone numbers.

I wish it were under happier circumstances, but I am glad you found me. Please keep in touch.

With warm personal regards,

Sincerely,

David
